Description _____ of _____

To whom it may concern at the FCC: I am making a complaint about a misleading and biased political ad. Super PACs are spending millions of dollars to influence our elections, but their names are misleading and deceptive. If we don't have real-time, online access to who's really behind these organizations, how will we know who's really trying to influence us to vote one way or another? We deserve truth in advertising and transparency in our elections.
