

I strongly oppose FCC approval of any requests to issue frequency license that would interfere in any way shape or form with Global Positioning Satellite signals. I use GPS extensively for business purposes on a daily basis, and for recreational purpose in both land and marine applications. The idea that the FCC would issue license to a Private firm in a for-profit capacity that could possibly interfere with human welfare is preposterous. Please deny the FourSquare license request.