

As a yachtsman who relies on a steady and accurate G P S signal I'm strongly opposed to any signal degradation which I understand would be caused by allowing LightSquared LLC to operate a new cellular broadband.

Safety at sea is my primary concern. Should the F C C allow the degradation of this all important G P S to sell added band-width as a means of attaining more funds is both foolish and in the long run unprofitable