

I depend on GPS for my job, traveling extensively throughout the Pacific Northwest. In addition I use my GPS system for safe navigation on my sailboat in coastal waterways and rivers.

Please do not grant anyone permission for developments that would / might jeopardize the current GPS services. I believe that LightSquared's proposal will do just that.