

My small business depends on text messaging to receive notifications from our security system of potential break-in. Interruption of service disables our security system. In the event of intentional interruption of service we must be informed of the interruption when it is implemented to take appropriate measures.

Any interruptions should be authorized in compliance with state laws.