

Do to the importance of having a reliable GPS service. Please dont let light squared to proceed with there plans to use the frequency that they want. The GPS signal has become vital of every day life be it marine navigation, airline industry, automobiles to hikers. For one company to want to put all of this at risk for the sake of money is a sad day.

Thank You

Don Yates