

Re: limited to one provider.

At home and/or traveling, a number of us, VRS users may have multi computers of different makes. Not all have compatible programs for a given provider, thus preventing us from making personal, emergency or business calls.

FYI, it is more difficult to deal with emergency and business related issues on VRS with interpreter/agents of lesser skill (quality).