

GPS is the basis of our precision ag company, as well being critical to our country's production agriculture. The thought that our government would knowingly and deliberately destroy our GPS infrastructure is mind-boggling and could put us out of business. Ground based signals shouldn't be placed in direct conflict with space based signals. Please adopt your recent proposals to prohibit LightSquared from building its wireless networks.