

Gps signals are an essential part in both land based and marine search and rescue. I fully support the blocking of any companys plans to interfere with this important system.

Thank you,