

In addition to using GPS while boating I also use it in my job. I work for several automobile dealers in New Hampshire. I deliver trucks and cars throughout New England and New York state. To even think of altering the GPS system would be a mistake. It is a system that works very well. Please do not mess with it.