

We need more wireless companies that reach out into the rural area's. Some say they can be used where I live, but in truth it's dead silent, or your calls get dropped. I'm tired of not having a phone simple because there isn't any service where I live, or I can't afford it.