

I would like to request FCC to set up all bilingual and trilingual interpreters to get certificate from FCC for ASL, English, and Spanish skills before become video interpreters. All VRS providers can hire all certified video interpreters by FCC approved. Many video interpreters are not qualified interpreters do not meet the criteria before become video interpreters' position. FCC can set the goal to improve for all VRS providers follow the criteria for certified video interpreters by FCC approved.