

I support the FCC's decision to stop LightSquared's proposal and any other proposals that might interfere with GPS. I rely on GPS for navigation on waterways as well as roads. Navigation in intercoastal waterways as well as the Gulf would become dangerous without reliable GPS.