RESPONSES OF SPECTRUMCO, LLC TO THE COMMISSION’S INFORMATION AND DISCOVERY REQUEST

March 22, 2012

Documents responsive to Request 4 are attached as Appendix A.

The remaining requests are substantively identical to requests included in the Information and Discovery Request for Comcast, issued on March 8, 2012.<sup>1</sup> For the reasons discussed below, those requests are satisfied on behalf of SpectrumCo, LLC (“SpectrumCo”) by the response to the Information and Discovery Request for Comcast, which is being filed separately today.<sup>2</sup>

SpectrumCo, the licensee of 122 AWS-1 licenses to be assigned to Verizon Wireless in this transaction, was created in 2006 as a joint venture among subsidiaries of Comcast Corp., Time Warner Cable, Cox Communications, Inc. (“Cox”), Bright House, and Sprint Nextel

<sup>2</sup> To the extent that Time Warner Cable, Inc. (“Time Warner Cable”) and Bright House Networks, LLC (“Bright House”) possess documents responsive to requests issued to SpectrumCo, LLC, they have included them in their separate responses to the Information and Discovery Requests issued to them on March 8, 2012.

Corporation (“Sprint”).<sup>3</sup> Following the departure of Sprint in 2007 and Cox in 2009, SpectrumCo is now owned by Comcast (63.6 percent), Time Warner Cable (31.2 percent), and Bright House (5.3 percent).<sup>4</sup>

SpectrumCo does not have employees, documents, or business units separate from those of its owners. Because Comcast has managed the day-to-day operations of SpectrumCo since its inception, SpectrumCo’s responses to the requests (other than Request 4, which is addressed herein) are the same as Comcast’s response to the corresponding request. Therefore, the Comcast responses are incorporated by reference herein, and SpectrumCo has not submitted separate responses.
