

I disapprove of any general police power to effect jamming, interruptions, or blocking of cell phone and cellular carrier radio frequency signals used by the citizen population.

Such measures should only be available subsequent and subordinate to the issuance of a court order pursuant to a similar procedure for acquisition of a search warrant upon probable cause and a showing that the impact on the general population so affected would be negligible.