

HOA restrictions make it next to impossible to put up antennas except in flagpoles. Builder wants us to help them out for local events but does not allow any external antennas in the community. As a retirement community there are many ham operators willing to assist in hurricanes, etc. but our abilities are severely restricted by the HOA rules. We need federal laws to override the local HOAs so we can be of service as FCC and local emergency management response teams.