

If an exemption for Cablevision is granted from basic cable TV encryption rules then Boxee should also be granted an exemption in addition to similar Internet TV based startups who might be forced out of business if the rule stands as their set top boxes cannot transmit cable TV signals – individuals would have to have use a proprietary set top box from their cable or satellite provider – cannot replace it with Boxee Box.