

We need more competition in fixed and mobile broadband services not less. As such the broadband market is an anti-competitive duopoly compared to the dead end market for slow dial-up Internet access. Please FCC deny Verizon SpectrumCo due to the anti-competitive marketing agreements threatening to diminish competition between phone and cable companies in the fixed broadband, phone and TV market(s) and the massive spectrum concentration in Verizon's favor in the wireless market threatening wireless competition.