

Dear Federal Communications Commission:

I am writing in support of a locally-originated programming requirement for new Low Power FM (LPFM) stations. Please ensure that LPFM stations truly meet local community needs by requiring new LPFM stations to broadcast a significant amount of locally-originated programming each week.

Community programming is exactly what Low Power FM should be for.

Thank you,
Stephen

Respectfully,
Stephen Cataldo
Berkeley CA