

We urge the FCC to approve the creation of LP-250 service, and we urge the FCC to allow low power radio service in RURAL locations (such as Boone, NC) that have limited channel availability--and currently have no lower power radio service.