

I am a VRS interpreter and I do not agree that the FCC should give RID a monopoly on certifying VRS interpreters. There are very qualified States Test that have been passed by interpreters, what about Trilingual Intepreters??? Passing the Texas Trilingual Test is not going to help in this situation either??