

I support the proposal that VRS interpreters should hold RID or NAD certification. Currently-employed VRS interpreters who do hold RID or NAD certification should continue to interpret and the new rule should apply to NEW hires.