

Please, dont take away our tv stations. I am getting close to retirement, no pension, only social security and was hoping to downsize my Dish network bill to something reasonable, and use an outside antenna for local channels. I rely on the local weather over the air stations for safe travel in winter. We are the working poor that is very tired of seeing everything taken from us. Thank you Ray