Re: Ex Parte – Empowering Consumers to Prevent and Detect Billing for Unauthorized Charges (“Cramming”); Consumer Information Disclosure; Truth-in-Billing and Billing Format, CG Docket Nos. 11-116, 09-153 and CC Docket No. 98-170

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 14, 2012, representatives of AT&T Services, Inc. (AT&T), specifically Davida M. Grant, General Attorney, William Roughton, General Attorney, and the undersigned met with Kris Monteith, Acting Bureau Chief; Mark Stone, Deputy Bureau Chief; Kurt Schroeder, Acting Chief; Michael Jacobs, Legal Advisor; John Adams, Acting Deputy Division Chief; Melissa Conway, Attorney Advisor; and Sara Kuehnle, Intern of the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, to discuss the Report and Order (R&O) and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (FNPRM) in the above referenced docket.¹

The purpose of the meeting was to talk about the new rule adopted in the R&O that requires carriers to place non-carrier third party charges in a distinct section of the customer’s bill separate from all carrier charges.² AT&T provided an overview of AT&T’s combined bill and discussed specifically non-telecommunications services provided by its affiliates, alliances and non-affiliated third parties. AT&T expressed its view that the manner in which it bills for such services is consistent with the requirements under Section 64.2401.

Pursuant to section 1.206(b)(1) of the Commission’s rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b)(1), this ex parte notification is being filed for inclusion in the public record of the above referenced proceeding.

¹ See Empowering Consumers to Prevent and Detect Billing for Unauthorized Charges (“Cramming”); Consumer Information Disclosure; Truth-in-Billing and Billing Format, CG Docket Nos. 11-116, 09-153 and CC Docket No. 98-170, Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 12-42 (April 27, 2012).

² R&O & FNPRM at para. 66.
