

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

A free and independent press is critical to our democracy, yet only six corporations control over half the media in the USA. Newspapers are folding. Small independent media outlets are becoming very rare.

Allowing more consolidation of media does not serve the interest of the American people. The ban on monopoly ownership must stand.

Regards,

Michael

United States of America