

As an ordained clergywoman in the United Church of Christ, I am writing re:the horribly high and predatory rates for phone calls to and from prison inmates. This is an unconscionable abuse of people who are already being punished for their crimes against society and of their families. This practice/policy needs to be eliminated as quickly as possible.