

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

i want the press to be as independent as possible, and that will not happen if TV stations own newspapers; i know newspapers are having a hard time financially, but i think they need to learn to adapt and remain relevant, not find easy outs by merging the news into the entertainment industry

Regards,

steve harley

United States of America