

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

I and many others ask that you not lift the ban against media monopolies. Six large corporations already control much of the media we consume, and allowing them to dominate news would drown out thousands of voices and crush local journalism and investigative reporting.

Regards,

Sarah

United States of America