

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

An FCC that disallows the use of the word fuck on television but allows a very few partisan media companies to control the way people get information is an FCC that has literally abandoned democracy.

Regards,

Matthew Reed

United States of America