

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

I cannot adequately express how tired I am of having to fight to have my rights protected. I feel that government should advocate for citizens, not corporate interests.

Please do your duty as public servants and protect free and open media!!!

Regards,

Mary

United States of America