

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

The FCC was created to protect the public voice, not drown it. We expect you to honor that mandate. Since local newsrooms are closing, investigative journalism is collapsing and diverse viewpoints are shrinking from our airwaves. A true loss of freedom of speech.

Regards,

Sarah

United States of America