

Thousands of people rely on devices that use unencrypted signals such as the Boxee Box (for Boxee Live TV), HD Homerun, EyeTV, and computer TV Tuner cards to watch TV. I urge the FCC to protect unencrypted cable signals. As such I and the thousands of consumers who have commented in this proceeding against encryption oppose the Basic Cable Tier Encryption rule proposed and urge the FCC to vote no on encryption.