

I am very bothered by the commercial like the one Hardees did with Kate Upton as she pretends she is getting some sexual pleasure from food. Commercials like this one are desensitizing children and adults and perpetuating the problem of pornography and sex trafficked victims. I would hope we could eliminate this type of soft porn from being acceptable in advertisement.