

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

As an American citizen, I fear that allowing further consolidation of media ownership will be detrimental to the flow of free and accurate information. Corporate players like Rupert Murdoch have proven that they cannot and will not handle the power of media monopoly responsibly. We need diversity of ownership to protect ourselves from further bias and scaremongering, which have proven detrimental to our democracy.

Regards,

Andrew

United States of America