

ISP's are already charging double for each transmission. Consumers get dinged for download bandwidth and providers get dinged for upload bandwidth. Most people simply don't realize it. Therefore toll free data and mobile toll free data services are just wrong.