

The consumer loses in the Viacom vs. DirecTV battle that is going on right now. Currently, I pay $70 per month for DirecTV channels and just lost out on 15 of them with this dispute. Viacom wants me to change providers but they will not pay my termination fee. Directv wants to increase my monthly. Both of these companies make millions of dollars. The only one who loses out is the consumer.