

Northern Kentucky University and its noncommercial FM network, WNKU, believe that existing FCC rules regarding third party fundraising appropriately serve the interests of the public and noncommercial educational stations. In addition, because of serious concerns well articulated in the University Station Alliance comment in opposition to FCC Proposed Noncommercial Educational Station Fundraising for Third-Party Non-Profit Organizations (MB Docket No. 12-106), we join in their opposition to the proposed rule change.