

Please stop the Verizon/Cable deal. There is nothing in it for consumers. Verizon says operational efficiency will save costs and lower prices, but that won't happen because it will be offset by less competition. This is only good for Verizon shareholders.