

I object to the proposed Verizon/Cable company deal. For the interest of not only the American Consumer, but also for the American Worker.

I live in a small town where only Comcast offers high speed internet. I would like to have FIOS service, but it is not offered. If this deal goes through, then I would bet that FIOS will never be offered and I will not have a true choice for high speed internet.

I urge you to reject this proposal.