

Too big, stop the madness. These companies are forming a monopoly restricting free trade and commerce. But I for one have pulled the plug on cable and TV for that matter. I am one but there are many more. We are now more engaged in the politics around us. You see more of us on your emails, at your hearings, voting. We can now better see the lies coming at us. All for because of unplugging the TV. So in a way Thanks. GM Monsanto is our target - Just Label IT!!
