

The FCC was created to assure a fair playing field for consumers and media providers/broadcasters. Your pending approval of the Verizon/cable deal with next to no thrifty choices simply stinks.