

The agreement between Verizon, Comcast and other major telecoms represents a direct threat to the rights of consumers to deal in an open market. Please stop this from happening. The telecoms will find another way to make huge profits.