

The Internet backbone is the property of the America people. It was our tax dollars that paid for it. Verizon Wireless, Comcast, and Time Warner have to right to limit our chooses and increase the cost of using the Internet. They should be paying the American people for the usage of the Internet.