

The cable and telecom companies are big enough. They make huge profits and hurt both consumers and employees. Please stop these companies from colluding. Someone has to stand up to big business. Please show the leadership to do so. Thank you.