

Other than internet service, I have dropped all Comcast accounts due to terribly expensive pricing of ad ridden broadcasts. It is no surprise that these monopolies are deal making, in order to expand their profits while they overcharge us and offer less and less. I do not support any approval of mergers for tv and telephone. Ma Bell was busted and dispersed for less. End the rip-offs now, please. Thank you.