

Allowing Verizon and Comcast to merge is a spectacularly bad idea. Another bloated monopoly that has no incentive to serve any purpose larger than the next quarterly report has no business with a public function.