

It is so obvious that linking all of the companies together will cause a near monopoly if not a total monopoly. When that happens, customers will be the losers.

I pay enough for my cable and phone lines. There is no need to make those bills even higher.

Forget about the monopolies please, and think of the citizens.