

Please cable is high enough a the choices too few if you create this monopoly then the consumer will pay just a the consumer always does, big Business creates another monopoly and the consume loses any advantages they ever had. Therefore I say no and hope two million others will join in saying no.