

Please do not approve any deals between big phone companies and big cable companies. There is little enough competition left as it is.