

Please do not let Verizon merge with cable companies, thereby becoming larger and limiting our choices. Verizon has been giving me very poor customer service lately as well as pulling some unethical tricks about a class action suit (if I take part in the suit, they said they would no longer give me service!). We don't need that to grow bigger and more powerful.